MILLION DOLLARS TO BE USED FOR HOME BUILDING THROUGH PEOPLES BANK

ANNUAL CONVENTION FLORIDA W. C. T. U. CLOSES SESSION IN ST. CLOUD TONIGHT

The annual convention of the Florida Women's Christian Temperance Union will close tonight with a lecture by Mrs. Laura M. Mance, of Lake Wales, Fla., who is national lecturer for the Florida W. C. T. U. and who has just returned from a trip abroad. Her subject will be "The Holy Land". The sessions are held in the Methodist church.

Opening the annual convention on Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Minnie Neal, state president for Florida, announced the program of welcome that was prepared for the first session of the four-day convention to be held in St. Cloud.

It was a fitting tribute to the St. Cloud organization that they should be known as the Minnie E. Neal W. C. T. U. as Miss Neal was still acting president of the State organization, and Miss Neal was very appreciative to learn that there were more than one hundred members of the chapter that bears her name in this city to welcome the delegates to the annual state convention.

Miss Neal announced the devotionals numbers for the first session, and then in turn introduced the following St. Cloud people, who extended welcome to the visiting W. C. T. U. delegates of the state.

Rev. Wm. Landies, former pastor of the Methodist church, extended a hearty welcome on the part of the St. Cloud Chamber of Commerce, of which he is president, and was followed by Mr. B. L. Steen, on behalf of the Realtors Board of St. Cloud.

Prof. H. F. Zettrouer, principal of the St. Cloud schools extended the welcome on the part of the schools of the city and told some interesting things in regard to the "Future" saying in the course of his remarks that the W. C. T. U. had always co-operated with the school faculty in all work for the proper education of the youth of this city.

Dr. Ivor G. Bradman, pastor of the Methodist church, voiced the welcome of the Ministerial Association of the city, and took occasion to laud the work of the W. C. T. U. in all its branches as a "leader for the preachers" in their efforts to better the morals of any community.

A male quartet delighted the visitors and local members with two fine selections during the welcome addresses, as did Mrs. Iva Kanaval who sang a delightful solo.

A welcome for the press of Osceola county was extended on the part of the newspapers of Osceola county by Claude F. Johnson, editor of the Tribune, who announced that Dr. May Pickett Foster had been assigned to report for the Tribune and press in general the proceedings of the convention.

Mrs. Dr. Smothers, of Orlando made a delightful response to the address of welcome, after which a formal reception was held in the annex of the church.

MR. AND MRS. NORRIS ON MOTOR TRIP

Wm. and Mrs. Norris have just returned from one of their numerous trips. The last of September they went to Tampa and took a steamer for New Orleans a forty-eight hours' voyage and after some days in that city they went to Pensacola visiting Mr. Norris' name sake who is forest supervisor.

They were delighted with drives through peach and persimmon groves. Returning they visited Tampa and motored over that wonderful growing city with all its suburbs and over the Gandy bridge to the Sunshine city and on Sunday morning had pleasure of hearing Dr. Reynolds. The trip was cut short in order to be back home to attend the State Convention of the W. C. T. U.

BISHOP CAMERON MANN

Bishop Cameron Mann will preach at the Episcopal church at 1 a. m. next Sabbath morning and will also hold communion services. All are invited.

FIRST CONCERT OF ST. CLOUD BAND DRAWS BIG CROWD ON LAST SUNDAY

The first concert for the winter season of the St. Cloud Orchestra Band, was rendered Sunday afternoon at the city park in the new band shell, which has been recently completed on the west side of the park square, when the parking space for cars and all seats were taken.

A delightful program has been prepared by Director Rolfe, and the members of the band proved to the audience that St. Cloud has this season the best musical organization that the city has ever brought together.

NEW ROAD MAPS ARE PRINTED BY THE TRIBUNE

The Florida Automobile Association, with headquarters at Orlando, has just issued a new and revised edition of the Florida State Road map, which can be obtained at their headquarters or from any garage or hotel co-operating with the Florida State Automobile Association, which is affiliated with the American Automobile Association.

The first edition of these maps was 20,000 copies, and orders have been placed for an additional 100,000 to be supplied in the next few weeks to meet the demand for accurate road information in Florida.

Jack Hughes, who was formerly secretary of the Florida Automobile Association, but who resigned some months ago, is again affiliated with that organization, and a vast amount of valuable information is being prepared to be published with the maps in regard to the Florida motor laws, which every traveler should be familiar with when they undertake a trip through the state, as during the last session of the legislature there were many changes in speed laws and traffic regulations.

Persons desiring these maps may secure them from the office of the Florida Automobile Association, Orlando, Fla., by letter (enclosing stamps) or by calling in person.

The 100,000 maps being issued are the product of the St. Cloud Tribune Press, St. Cloud, Fla., the engraving by Clyde Glenn, Tampa, and the original drawing of the map by the Florida Associated Engineers, of Orlando.

THE WESTMINSTER AID OF THE PRESBYTERIAN

The Westminster Aid of the Presbyterian church held its regular meeting in the City Park Tuesday afternoon November 3rd. At the meeting along with other business matters plans were made for their bazaar which is to be held Saturday November the twenty-eighth.

THE CONSOLIDATED REALTY CO. NEW HOME

The Consolidated Realty Co. have secured the lease on the building formerly occupied by the Davis Dry Cleaning Shop and as soon as the remodeling and redecoration is complete will move to this location which is across the street from the Chamber of Commerce present location.

DAVIS DRY CLEANING PLANT IN NEW QUARTERS

The Davis Dry Cleaning plant has moved to the building on South New York Avenue, formerly occupied by the Peoples Banking company at the corner of Twelfth Street.

REGULAR RECESSED SESSION OF CITY COMMISSION

On Monday November 2nd City Manager John Collins tendered his resignation which was accepted. Mr. Geo. Mitchell assumed his duties as city manager.

Mr. Collins was appointed to look after duties of clerk and collector also as building and plumbing inspector.

In the C. A. Bailey advertisement last week the printer made Mr. Bailey say that he had a lot on Tenth and Ohio Avenue where the Methodist church is located—for sale at $4,500. The advertisement should have read Fourth Street and Ohio Avenue. We make this correction to try to put matters straight.

The Town Captains met with Secretary Rolfe for a complete outline and the details of the proposed Drive for 2,000 members Wednesday night, November 4th.

In the effort to put over the biggest Drive of its kind in a city the size of St. Cloud, the Chamber of Commerce is looking forward to the future of St. Cloud and its citizens. No effort is being spared to make this Drive an assured success. Every possible angle has been gone into infinitely. Every possibility of a failure has been considered, and if for any reason this Drive should fail, there will be no one responsible but the citizens of St. Cloud.

Secretary Rolfe, in outlining the activities of the Chamber of Commerce both past, present and the proposed future activities has proven conclusively the absolute necessity for the amount of money asked for in this Drive.

The first consideration was to give to the people of St. Cloud something really worth while other than to increase valuations of the properties in and near St. Cloud, that will result from the publicity that will have been secured with the money raised by this Drive. With every membership will be given a Travel and Pedestrian Accident Insurance Policy for $7500.00, issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company of Chicago, Illinois, an organization of tremendous strength and financial backing. The thought is to give to every man, woman and child in the City of St. Cloud something more than any other Chamber of Commerce in the United States does.

Starting with the children; arrangements have been completed for the entertainment of every child holding a membership card in the "Kiddies Division" of the Chamber of Commerce, at the Popular Theatre every Saturday morning, with moving pictures, with such stars as Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Douglas McLean, Wesley Barry, and the ridiculous Felix Cat comedies, and last, but not least, educational scenic films of the various foreign lands. And parties at the Chamber of Commerce, or in the City Park with candies, cookies, good things to eat, and everything to make little hearts light and happy. And then comes the Junior Division, for those 15 to 20 years old, in which the Chamber of Commerce has arranged to take care of the athletic and social activities of these youngsters, with perhaps a ten dance quite frequently at the East Lake Club, and up athletic meet and various other things to strengthen their active bodies and make better young men and women out of our youth. And then those from 21 years old up whose own selfish interests should lead aside, whose interests in their City, and whose pride in their City should merit a very consideration. For those who are property holders and want a bigger, finer, more progressive city to live in, with this money raised by this Drive St. Cloud will be on the threshold of a brilliant prosperous future. If but one hundred new citizens are added to our population within the coming year, with the money raised, they will have enhanced the value of property not less than 100 per cent. It is possible for the Chamber of Commerce to accomplish the things they have without any money in the past two months, the future possibilities with this $20,000.00 will be stupendous.

The fact that our Orchestral Band will broadcast from a radio broadcasting station every Monday night will bring new inquiries and curious people throughout the country to inquire as to where and what St. Cloud is. There is no one thing that will mean quite so much as the radio broadcasting program outlined. This feature alone will prove to be worth more than any $20,000.00, or $50,000.00, that the citizens of St. Cloud raise for our Chamber of Commerce.

INTEROCEAN CITY INAUGURATING NATION-WIDE ADVERTISING AND SELLING CAMPAIGN

Interocean City, six miles West of Kissimmee and now recognized as one of the largest developments in the state of Florida, is completing rapidly its plans of an organized nationwide advertising and sales campaign. Within the last few weeks Dr. James Waters has opened a local sales office in the Conn Building and the local selling force is reported to be doing a big business.

Residents of St. Cloud who have visited Interocean City and witnessed the development taking place in advance of the advertising and selling campaign have been so impressed that a large number have become property owners in this new city on the Dixie.

In all of the principal cities of Florida branch offices are in operation and all report splendid sales. Through a number of the Northern and Western states offices have been opened and large sales reported. Within the last week M. R. Leahy, one of the leading sales organizers of the country was a visitor in this vicinity, after having combed the entire state for what he considers its best proposition and decided upon Interocean City.

Mr. Leahy spent almost a week studying the work already done and going over the detailed plans of scientific city planning that is being put into effect at Interocean City as rapidly as possible. He then constructed to form a mammoth sales organization to be devoted exclusively to the sale of Interocean City property in New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and New Jersey.

Headquarters of the Leahy organization will be at 42nd and Broadway, New York City, where "all the World and his Wife" passes by. Mr. Leahy will direct the policies of his organization which will have branches in every city of importance in the eight states mentioned.

This organization, according to Mr. Leahy, will dispose of $500,000 worth of Interocean City holdings during the remaining few weeks of the present year. This figure he sets as a minimum and predicts a possible sale reaching the million figure.

Commenting on Interocean City Mr. Leahy said: "There are a number of points in this development that occur to me as being outstanding. I am surprised to see the vast amount of development work that was undertaken before any effort was made to sell. I am particularly impressed with the forethought that has been given to the laying out of this city.

"The waterways project is marvellous, the 'Swiss Amphitheatre' is something that defies comparison. The industrial section has been well planned and excellent headway made in arranging the manufacturing establishments to locate here. The five and ten acre farms are novel, especially as I am informed, they are to be sold before the season opens.

There is a keen to a large number of farmers desiring to leave the North for your wonderful agricultural community and delightful climate."

Mr. Leahy is far from a novice in the selling profession. He is credited with adding in the perfection of sales organizations that have sold various automobiles into the class where total output is counted in the millions.

ST. CLOUD FOOTBALL ELEVEN WALLOPS KISSIMMEE

(Daily Gazette Saturday Oct. 30)

While more than eight hundred fans, three hundred from Kissimmee, looked on, the St. Cloud high school football team in its first year, raced to 6 to 0 victory over the Osceola county high school of this city.

Kissimmee can make no alibi. They had won the game as many times in their minds before it was played that the final result was a distinct shock to the fans as they left the field, and many are still wondering how it happened. Keen rivalry exists between the two schools and last night St. Cloud was the scene of one of the most brilliant celebrations in years.

In the opening play, St. Cloud kicked to McLean, who was stopped in his tracks without gain. In the next play the Kissimmee fullback made 5 yards on a short end run, but in the next two attempts Kissimmee was held to no gain and forced to punt. It was the work of Liggett, Tyson and Thomas of St. Cloud that was halting Kissimmee players at every instance. There was no scoring in the first quarter. It was a battle of gains between Wines and McLean for Kissimmee and Tyson and Liggett of St. Cloud.

Kissimmee started the first period with a series of fumbles that nearly proved the ending of the game in its early stages. During the end of the period the Kissimmee line was halting Liggett and Tyson. Then Johnson punted for St. Cloud and Tyson recovered the ball on Kissimmee's 40-yard line. Tyson added another one yard gain before the period ended.

On a pass of 10 yards, Johnson to Tyson, Tyson added 10 more yards before he was downed. Here St. Cloud attempted a drop kick which was blocked, but recovered the ball for first downs. On the next play, a pass, Johnson to Walters, St. Cloud made 9 yards. With only 15 yards to score, Thomas broke loose and went over Kissimmee's goal for the only score of the game. Johnson's attempt to drop kick failed.

At this stage the Kissimmee team started a series of gains that only the end of the half was able to stop. Hankins, McLean, Snyder and Wines were plowing their way down the field with small gains. It looked as though the Kissimmeeans were unstoppable, but the half ended when the team was within striking distance of the St. Cloud goal.

The third quarter was uneventful, but excitement was rampant in the final few minutes of the last period. Kissimmee, tired of crashing against the St. Cloud line, started a series of wide runs and passes, that came near wrecking the 6-point lead of St. Cloud. After a 25-yard run that put Kissimmee in scoring distance, the referee brought the ball back and added a penalty, claiming that Lawrence who had just entered the game had failed to report. The decision was questioned. In the next play St. Cloud intercepted a pass and the game ended before any material gains had been made.

HALLOWE'EN MASQUE DANCE AND BUFFET SUPPER AT EAST LAKE CLUB HOUSE

It has been proven in the past that an invitation to the East Lake Club meant that a good time was in store for those who were invited, but never since the beginning of its organization has there been a more delighted crowd than that which went in response to the hundred and fifty invitations sent out by the East Lake Club to the Halloween masque dance and buffet supper. At nine o'clock the hall was well filled with many masqueraders in costumes that caused much merriment and with strains of music which was furnished by C. C. Rolfe and ten other de-

Announcement was made this week of completion of arrangements to secure one million dollars for building new homes in St. Cloud. This sum will be placed with The Peoples Bank of St. Cloud by the Mortgage Holding Co., of New York and Tampa, and Mr. Fred B. Kenney, cashier, will be the representative of the new financial concern.

With building operations going at full swing, and hundreds of others planning new homes, the announcement that a million dollars of additional funds is available will be good news to the builders.

Mr. Kenney in discussing the building situation said that The Peoples Bank had been making loans to home people for building rather than outside parties, and with the bank showing an increase of approximately two hundred and seventy-five percent in deposits during the past year, they have aided many worthy enterprises in St. Cloud.

JOHN F. BAILEY BUILDS HOME ON MISSISSIPPI AVE.

That John F. Bailey, realtor is going to call Billy Milsons hand as per their agreement, "build $5,000 better than his best." During the past week the foundation was laid for a thirteen room house on the east of city on Mississippi Avenue. This is the way to increase real estate values come on lets go.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

A Halloween party was given at the Deer Park schoolhouse on Friday afternoon by the teacher, Mrs. Lella Simmons. Games were played and after a few stunts such as a Gnom Box, Question Box, etc., were disposed of, refreshments of lemonade and cake were enjoyed by all.

PRESBYTERIANS PLAN BAZAAR

Westminster Presbyterian Ladies Aid served dinner for the W. C. T. U. delegates on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Over two hundred people were served at each dinner.

The regular meeting of the Aid was held Tuesday afternoon. Plans were made for a bazaar to be given Saturday, November 28. Further plans will be announced.

On Friday evening of last week J. Sherin Hart and M. M. Mastin, of Hillsville, Ohio, a river in St. Cloud to spend the winter. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Raul Barnard, of Hillsville came in to make St. Cloud their future home. They report that there are many more to follow them to this land of winter sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. V. McLean, who have been winter visitors in St. Cloud for several seasons, missing only last year on account of Mr. McLean's health, are again in our midst, and are being welcomed by a host of friends they have made here each winter season.

this city and the applause of appreciation was loud and long.

At the ghostly hour of midnight the guests were invited to fall in line and retire to the banquet hall below where a buffet supper was served, this also being in keeping with all else and the "proof of the pudding was tasting thereof". After all had been refreshed, they again assembled in the upper room and another hour spent in dancing and social good time. The decorations were tastefully arranged. At one o'clock the orchestra struck the strain of "Home, Sweet Home" as all said good night with expressions of delight.

Everyone who can do so should

St. Cloud needs a first class furniture store. Thousands of dollars now go out of this community for furniture that should remain at home if there was a first class furniture store here.

There is only one way to have proper traffic regulations and that is through rigid enforcement of all the rules. The careful driver should report the selfish and indifferent drivers, who should be forced to respect the rights of others.

There are two things that have kept a number of Florida towns back in the present advancement that is so noticeable over the entire country.
Every town that "jumped" the price of lots and property beyond actual value, and every town that "jumped"
the price of rent is today suffering
as a result.

ST. CLOUD ON THE MAP

The editor of the Tribune was favored with a copy of the Saturday Evening Post of the New York Sun, dated October 22, which contained 14 pages about Florida. In that issue many interesting things were said about our state-of-education, as viewed by a non-partisan reporter, sent to Florida to divulge to the Sun what he found as to conditions of the reported "boom". Of course that fourteen pages of the Sun contained some very good, paid advertising, but one feature that convinces us that it was not the towns that bought space that got a "boost" was the fact that St.
Cloud "was on the map", published in that issue, showing the cities where substantial development was under way. There was not a single advertisement from any business concern in St. Cloud in that issue of the Sun, yet we were put "on the map"
of developing cities never-the-less.
This shows the impartial work of the reporter who prepared the material for that special Florida section. And the same could be said of some other good towns in this state.

The Sun has done the State of Florida a great service and several cities have gained untold publicity, born a
as the Sun reporter saw conditions,
they deserve it.

This kind of investigation is worthy of praise from every community in Florida and deserving of emulation on the part of other metropolitan newspapers.

Some day that old game of "publicity for those who pay", regardless of the rapid development is going to change. Too many northern newspapers and magazines propose to put a town "on the map", provided their people buy so much space.

Thanks to the New York Sun, St.
Cloud was put on their map without this "paying toll", as is too often the game of those special edition "soldiers".

FLORIDA TAXING LAWS

Much has been written about Florida's taxing laws, because they are attractive to individuals and corporations alike; they are fair; that is the story in brief.

Money centers in every locality of the nation are interested in Florida because of the state's inclination to deal squarely with the taxpayer. Advantages for individuals and corporations are found in the following laws.

- First: No State Income Tax (Constitutionally prohibited).
- Second: No State Inheritance Tax (Constitutionally prohibited).
- Third: No Annual Corporation Franchise Tax.
- Fourth: No General Direct Sales Tax.
- Fifth: No business Income or Gross Sales Tax.
- Sixth: No Mortgage Tax.
- Seventh: No Severance Tax.
- Eighth: Constitutional Limitation of Five Mill Tax on Intangibles ever taxed.

Aside from these, Florida statutes embrace many other laws directly affecting resources and money in the most advantageous way.

Thus Scripps-Howard papers have not published the fact that their "investigator" Keads has bought property in Florida.

VERO BEACH BAND PLAYS
ON TRIP THROUGH CITY

Tuesday morning the people who happened to be down town at about ten o'clock in the morning were delighted with some fine music by the Vero Beach band, which stopped here on their way to the Realtors meeting at Lakeland. There were eleven men in the party, in charge of the Chief, Chas. D. Tonde, of Vero and Major Blackford was leader of the band, while E. J. Sellars, secretary of the chamber of commerce at Vero Beach was playing a cornet with the band. Twenty-six musicians were in the band and twenty minutes completed the party.

It was learned from the Vero Beach delegation that they will soon open a new club in Royal Park and invite St. Cloud transients to come down and try their luck.

OFFICERS, FLORIDA
W. T. C. U. ELECTED
AT ANNUAL CONVENTION

At the annual election of officers of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held Wednesday, the following were re-elected to serve another year.

President, Miss Minnie E. Neal.
Vice-President, Mrs. L. M. Parker.
Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ruby Kimbrough.

Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mabel Perkins-Dean.

Treasurer, Mrs. Nellie H. Dalg.

One of the most interesting and services of the entire convention was the receiving of the babies. When the cult was given by the president
Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Parker with baby
Vernon Tilden, Mrs. J. Phillips with John Harvey, Mr. Dr. Riddle with John Calvin and Elizabeth Dene came forward.

The beautiful words spoken by Miss Neal will never be forgotten by the proud parents of this splendid group of babies, as she pinned an emblematic pin on Leslie Parker as the only father present and died on the wrist of each of the happy cooing babies the white ribbon. Miss Neal also went to the home of Colvin and Mrs. Parker at five o'clock on Tuesday evening and in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Blesch, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker, the grandparents, tied the white ribbon on the week old, Randall Colvin Parker. This impressive rite will long be remembered by all, especially little aunt, Mary Parker.

SCHOOL NOTES

Oh, just watch St. Cloud High climb the hill. Tute week we find enrolled ten new pupils.

Now we're started.

Let's Go!

Mary Rode and Evelyn Edwards are two helpful additions to the Senior Class. Its numbers has now increased to the large amount of fifteen. The Juniors claim two of the new pupils, Florence Moses and Sam Rode. The greater amount go to the Sophomores, Lenore Popener, Rose
McElroy, Richard Heim and Beamer
Edwards. Lastly the Freshmen, although they have the largest class in High School, received two more, Marian Marston and Connel Edwards.

Ernest Tyson, who underwent an operation some weeks ago, returned to school this week. We were all very glad to see him.

A Science Club was organized this week. Charles Hartley was the elected president.

The boys in the Agricultural classes are constructing a green house on their lots opposite the High School. This will be a great aid to the boys in their work.

St. Cloud will play Fort Meade
here next Saturday.

The Assembly program last Wednesday was in charge of the Seventh grade. It was in the form of an Athletic wedding, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The music preceding the ceremony was in charge of members of the Seventh grade, and consisted in the following numbers:

Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here—
Seventh grade Boys.
The Golden Haired Girl—Sola,
Marjorie Outlaw.

The Cat Came Back—Seventh grade Girls.

I'm in Love with the Man in the Moon—Sola, Christine Hickman.

There was an impressive silence.
Then the minister, Boyd Stein took his place. He was dressed in the usual golf costume, otherwise, knick-ers. The ring-bearer, Francis Meeker entered carrying the ring on a tennis racket. The groom Robert Lee Stein, and the best man, Guy Tindall were next. The groom's attendants as well as the groom himself, were dressed in bathing suits.

Two flower girls scattered golf balls and tennis balls in the path of the bride, Dixie Thomas, who entered on the arm of her father, Jay Johnston. The blushing bride was beautifully dressed in white, with a veil of real tulle. The bride's maid, Ruth Daniels, and several others of the bride's attendants were midly blouses and knickers.

All during this solemn but laugh-provoking procession, Ishengrin's beautiful Wedding March was softly played by Miss Lee, our talented musical director.

The ceremony followed the form of the beautiful ring ceremony, with special provisions for the bride's golf clubs, tennis rackets, and actions, if the groom got in late. At the close of the ceremony, the bride and groom were given a hearty yell pattered after those heard on football fields or basket-ball courts, and the show was over.

"ABRAHAM LINCOLN"
AT POPULAR
THEATRE

The picture is a straightforward portrayal of the dramatic incidents of the birth, romance, dramatic events and death of the martyred president.
It starts with his birth in the pioneer cabin during a blinding blizzard when the entire family almost perished from starvation. At the age of seven young Abe accompanied his family from Kentucky to the new state of Indiana. There Nancy Hanks Lincoln, Abe's mother, died. A year later Thomas Lincoln, the father, married a childhood friend, Sarah Bush Johnson, whose devotion to young Abe and protection in giving him an education were marked factors in his later success. All these depicted in the picture with touching realism will be shown at the Popular Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

After the family moved again to Illinois and Sarah Lincoln died Abe went to work, building a flatboat with which to carry cargoes down the Mississippi to New Orleans. His first trip was momentous. At New Salem he first saw Anne Rutledge, whose name has been connected with Lincoln's in one of the prettiest romances of history.

Memories of Anne brought him back to New Salem, where he worked under difficulties, helping the town bully, who disliked him because of his studious way. Lincoln was leader of volunteers against the Black Hawk Indians but on his return he found that his partner had drunk up the assets of the store leaving them
$1,000 in debt, an obligation Lincoln assumed. He mastered surveying in six weeks and was appointed surveyor for Sangamon County.

At twenty-seven he was studying law in Springfield. The next ten years saw him a circuit rider and finally a Congressman. He nominated for the Senate but sacrificed himself in order to keep the election from an undesirable candidate. The repeal of the Missouri Compromise seemed to him an open challenge on the slavery question and in his debates with Douglas he stated his position so clearly that Douglas would ever be president.

In a highly sensational party encous Lincoln was nominated for president and elected in a heated campaign. In the meantime he had married Mary Todd, who bore him two sons, and the entire family moved to Washington to take up residence at the White House. The trying period of the War, the moments of misery in his own household and the death of one son, the critical days, the dis-sonance in his cabinet and disloyalty among his friends all played their part in the great man's life before his final victory.

In the very moment of triumph, Lincoln was killed. The picture is plete with little known incidents of Lincoln's life, and is remarkable for the business of theme, heart interest and the fidelity and spectacular grandeur with which it has been filmed.

"ADVENTURE" AT POPULAR SATURDAY

YOU who are cooped up all day
in an office with nothing to break up the stale monotony of the daily routine of your uneventful lives.

WILL enjoy the type of picture that combines red-blooded action and romance with gripping drama and nerve-racking suspense. You will FIND relaxation and get a clear-house thrill while watching fearless

Tom Moore and charming Pauline Starke fight thru soul-stirring

"ADVENTURE" to love and happiness. It is a colorful tale of the South Seas, based on Jack London's greatest dramatic novel and was produced

AT great cost by that directorial genius, Victor Fleming. The cast includes Wallace Beery, Raymond Hatton and Walter McGrath. All

THE vast resources of the Paramount organization were placed at the disposal of the producer and the result is a picture worthy of a

POPULAR THEATRE presentation. The management of this theatre takes pleasure in announcing that
"Adventure" will be shown Saturday.

No. pupils inspected, 509.
No. pupils underweight, 31.
No. pupils overweight, 11.
No. pupils bad posture, 15.
No. pupils hook worm suspect, 50.
No. pupils enlarged tonsils, 11.
No. pupils anemic, 65.
No. pupils conjunctivitis, 32.
No. pupils bad vision, 42.
No. pupils bad teeth, 95.
No. pupils enlarged glands, 60.
No. pupils skin disease, 15.
No. positive hook worm cases who refuse to take medicine, 20.
Total—499.
Any child may have more than one defect.

Corrections since last inspection are teeth, eyes and tonsils, 44.
Hookworm treatments, 60 doses.

For hookworm specimen bottles, see the nurse, there by get the state board test free, to all young or old. Just a few words in regard to work being done in School of County outside of St. Cloud.

Kennansville is the next largest white school in eastern half of county, is located 35 miles southeast of St. Cloud, and road all the way.

They have a beautiful two story brick school building, all in good condition.

Last year when the state doctor and county school nurse made their rounds, sanitary condition were bad, toilets were condemned and closed. Today they have the most up-to-date septic tank, water and light plant that can be found anywhere in the county.

The general conditions of health and cleanliness of entire student body are a great improvement over last year. There is also a hearty cooperation on part of teachers, pupils and parents.

As a direct result of nurses individual inspections, (which means, weighing, measuring, examining especially teeth, eyes and throat) many corrections are being made.

On day of last inspection the nurse by Dr. Chunn's orders gave out 31 doses of hookworm medicine which is supplied by the Florida State Board of Health. These cases will later be checked up.

To every mother whose child was in any way abnormal, a note was sent by nurse, stating condition and what she thought best to do or have done.

Holopaw is another large white school. They are very fortunate to have the Griffin Lumber company's Doctor and nurse in their midst, with whom the County nurse is invited and delighted to work.

The four white schools in eastern half of county are: Deer Park, Holopaw, Kennansville and St. Cloud. Deer Park is very small, but very much altered, for instance, September inspections found windows in need of repair, toilets greatly in need of repair. October inspections found new shades and toilets in good condition.

Colored schools are as follows: Ashton—School open inspections done.
Narcissus—School open inspections done.

Indian—No teacher.
Tahopaw—No teacher.

Deer Park—No teacher.
Kennansville—No teacher.

Mr. Banner hopes to get teachers by first of year. All color of schools when open get the same health program as white.

There She Goes, on Her Toes

Nancy, $15

Nonchalant, yes. One can be with feet shod in such black patent pumps with patent and satin trim. Dress toe and heel, medium vamp. A Cousin shoe, $15.

Babette, $7.50

Wear black patent in a one-strap model when the costume's tailored. Cousins recommends this and you will too. Medium vamp, round toe and dress spike heel. $15.

Frances, $10

Patent, suede and satin combine in admirable measure to form the pump sketched left. Don't you like the buckle? And the spike heel? It's a short vamp, round toe model. $10.

Mary Lou, $8.50

Just made to fit swiftly dancing feet—a black satin pump with spike heels. $8.50. You may also see this popular style developed in patent or velvet. These others are $8.50 to $12.50.

Georgiana, $8.50

One strap. That's all! The graceful pump sketched left has perforations to add a bit of chic. Military block heel says "I'm easy on your tender feet." $8.50.

Barbara, $8.50

A good recipe. Take black satin pump, add suede strap. Trim toe with same. Use military walking heel. Result: Excellent. $8.50.

Gracia, $13.50

We've heard it said, and believe it true, that plain silver kid with one strap added is quite the thing for evening wear. Here you see one with medium toe and spike heel. $13.50.

FLORIDA UNDER MANY FLAGS AND MANY TIMES

Florida history has had four periods of history under Spain, one under France, one under England, one under the Confederate States, and three under the Stars and Stripes.

The dates run about as follows for what we know as Florida:

Spain had it from 1520 to 1713.
France had it from 1713 to 1723.
Spain again had it from 1723 to 1763.

Great Britain had it from 1763 to 1813.

United States had it from 1813 to 1820.

Spain again had it from 1821 to 1891.

Southern Confederacy had it from 1861 to 1865.

United States again had it from 1865 to 1924.

"TOMORROW" Was Too Late

When Lightning strikes there isn't time to turn the clock back!

St. Cloud is here today—What will St. Cloud be tomorrow?

The St. Cloud Chamber of Commerce is your medium of advertising; is your publicity department. IT IS YOUR CITY.

Through your Chamber of Commerce supported by your citizens, you can make, or break, St. Cloud.

Our opportunity is here, all we need is the cooperation of every man, woman and child in our City. With this thought in mind, we are planning one of the biggest "DRIVES" ever known in a City the size of St. Cloud. IF THIS "DRIVE" FAILS you are to blame and not the Chamber of Commerce. IF THIS "DRIVES" FAILS, you will be the loser, not the Chamber of Commerce.

IF THIS "DRIVE" SUCCEEDS, YOU WILL BE THE ONES WHO GAIN, not the Chamber of Commerce. IF THIS "DRIVE" SUCCEEDS, YOU WILL BE THE ONES WHO BANK THE PROFITS, not the Chamber of Commerce.

In a few days your civic pride, your love for your City, your interest in everything in our community will have a chance to prove itself. And when we are ready, you should be ready.

WE NEED 2,000 ACTIVE, WIDE-AWAKE, LIVE, ENERGETIC, PROGRESSIVE MEMBERS IN THE ST. CLOUD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

With every membership will be issued a $7500.00 Travel and Pedestrian Accident Insurance Policy. (See following page).

WHAT WE WILL DO WITH YOUR MONEY

We will entertain every Saturday morning at the Popular Theatre every child in the "Kiddy Division" of the Chamber of Commerce with such moving picture stars as Wesley Barry, Harold Lloyd, Douglas McLean, Mary Pickford, and others. The only way a child can get into the Popular Theatre will be by showing their Membership Card. About once each month we will entertain the "Kiddies" with a Party and a Luncheon with games and things that make little hearts light and happy.

We will entertain, promote, finance, and aid the athletic and social activities of the older children from 15 to 20 years of age, who are members of the "Junior Division" of the Chamber of Commerce. For them too will be parties and entertainment galore.

We will give to the Red Cross Roll Call more money than they would get by subscription, and relieve you of the annoyance of further subscriptions.

We will broadcast every Monday night the St. Cloud Orchestral Band from one of the foremost broadcasting stations in Florida. A medium of advertising unparalleled, a way to put St. Cloud before the whole United States.

We will erect highway advertising in the most conspicuous spots on the best highways in the State.

We will carry on a newspaper publicity campaign, advertising St. Cloud in the crowded over-run cities of Florida.

We will maintain a Chamber of Commerce with an Information Bureau, a Traffic Bureau, and a Publicity Department that would be a credit to a city ten times the size of St. Cloud.

YESTERDAY HUNDREDS OF PERSONS WERE KILLED IN ACCIDENTS; THE NUMBER OF INJURED RAN INTO THOUSANDS.

A large proportion of these persons were not insured. The only "estates" they left to their loved ones were blasted hopes, vain regrets, and the threat of want and poverty.

THE PITY OF IT! THE TRAGEDY OF IT! THE CRIME OF IT! Yet every one of these persons had told himself that he would insure—"Tomorrow".

AND IT WAS TOO LATE.

FLA. DEVELOPMENT BOARD NEWS SERVICE

Claude Nolan, of Jacksonville, Fla., distributor for the Cadillac automobile, was the first such contributor to the state wide fund for the Florida Development Board in raising at the request of Chambers of Commerce, banks and other business interests for the purpose of combating the Florida knocking campaign in the north. The Development Board did not get into the field until this week, but Nolan, returning from a lengthy trip through the north, heard plans for raising the fund were being worked out and immediately mailed a check for $250 with a letter stating that if more was necessary he would be glad to contribute a further sum.

"The things I heard said about Florida in the middle west and in the north were enough to make a loyal Floridian's blood", he said. "Those citizens of the state who have suggested that we pay no attention to knocking campaigns are simply blind. In the long run it might not hurt Florida but we do not want to run the risk that present effect of it will continue any length of time. I found scores of people who had decided not to come to Florida for the winter simply because the lies published about our state were so convincing, they believed them. Every conceivable thing to prevent people from going to Florida is being published. Two Detroit newspapers last Friday in great headlines across their front pages actually declared the makers of Florida were out of flour, and that the people had no bread. I am ready to do anything in my power to assist the board in raising "and to fight the lies—and we need a big one because the situation is becoming serious."

The Development Board, with the assistance of the Chambers of Commerce and other organizations, expects to raise at least $100,000 immediately to be expended in advertising throughout the country. Every dollar contributed will be spent for publicity, the Board having offered to bear from its treasury the overhead cost of raising the money.

Operation of trains in Florida by the Seaboard Air Line will virtually be revolutionized between November 15th and December 1st as a result of opening to traffic two new lines now under construction, officials have informed the Florida Development Board. The changes will come about through the completion of two short lines, one seventeen miles in length and the other twenty-three, but trivial as they seem, in comparison with the Calumet-West Palm Beach line built last year, they liberally force reconstruction of the railroad map of Florida.

The two lines are the Gross-Calumet cut-off and the Inverness-Brooksville line linking the Tampa-Brooksville and the Waldo-Inverness branches and converting them into a new through main line from Waldo to Tampa via Gainesville and Archer.

The Gross-Calumet cut-off forms a direct line from Gross, on the Jacksonville-Sarasota main line, to Calumet and Baldwin, making it possible to operate trains directly into South Florida without routing them via Jacksonville. Effective November 23rd the "Orange Blossom Special", from the East to West Palm Beach and St. Petersburg, will be operated directly from Gross via Calumet to Baldwin, cutting out Jacksonville entirely. At Baldwin, where the Seaboard is constructing great ship and terminal facilities at a cost of millions of dollars, the train will be broken into two sections, one running directly to West Palm Beach and the other to Tampa and St. Petersburg. With the elimination of Jacksonville, two hours will be saved and the Seaboard will shorten the running time of the train accordingly. Through freight for South Florida and West Florida points also will be moved over the cut-off to Baldwin, there to be broken up in the yards and sent west or south. Officials believe that at least one day will be saved in the movement of carload shipments from the east into South Florida because they will be kept out of the crowded Jacksonville yards.

The Seaboard expects to have the Inverness-Brooksville line completed and in operation by December 1st. Waldo is a short distance south of Baldwin and it will be possible to move all freight for St. Petersburg, Clearwater and Tarpon Springs and other West Coast points, as well as Tampa, via the new line. The new line will relieve the present Jacksonville-Tampa main line of much traffic and make it possible to move freight for the Panhandle peninsula more rapidly than over the old route because it will be kept out of the Tampa yards. Completion of the work made way will give the Seaboard the equivalent of two main lines between Jacksonville and Tampa over routes only a few miles distant from one another.

In connection with this work the Seaboard is relaying the track from Waldo to Inverness via Gainesville and Archer with heavy rail, while similar work on the Tampa-Brooksville branch is rapidly nearing completion.

They're taking stock in much of the anti-Florida propaganda being broadcast through the north. The Florida Development Board has the following letter from Mrs. Nelson Hamilton, of Leslie, Michigan:

"We are planning to go to Florida in a few weeks but have heard something about there being guards on the border that will not let you drive into Florida. Please let us know by return mail. We go by auto."

Many Floridians have asserted that lies told about Florida in the north are such patent lies they will have little or no effect but—

The Florida Development Board has a letter from S. W. Potter, 27 North Broadway Street, Dayton, Ohio, which read as follows:

"As I am thinking of coming to Florida for the winter and I hear that I will have to put up $500 to year state before I can get in, will you please inform me if this rumor is so?"

Advertising solicitors representing the "Railroad Yardmasters' Yearbook" are in Florida seeking to separate merchants from money and are intimating boycott of those who do not buy space in the publication and guaranteeing the trade of railroad men to those who do, according to a report to the Florida Development Board from Secretary Claude Hultzen of the Plant City Chamber of Commerce.

"Crude stuff," wired Hultzen. "I'm expecting a visit next from solicitors seeking ads for the Florida Edition of the Pretzel Benders' Union Annual."

The Atlantic Coast Line, it has been learned by the Florida Development Board, has well under way one of the most important railroad construction projects yet undertaken in Florida and about which it has said nothing. It is rebuilding the 120 miles of main line between High Springs and Lakeland, laying it with 100 pound rail, and converting it into the finest piece of roadway in the entire state in order that heavier trains may be handled and moved at higher speeds.

Because of the enormous volume of development under way in South Florida the Waycross-High-Danville, and the railroads is preparing against the time when the cut-off is built.

From all quarters of the state come opinions that the movement of the Florida Development Board, at the request of Chambers of Commerce and business interests, to raise immediately a fund of at least $100,000 to be expended in combating the flood of anti-Florida propaganda, can not be done any too quickly. The Development Board, which will bear the overhead cost of raising the war chest in order that every cent contributed to the fund may be expended for advertising space, expects to go into the field sometime next week.

W. G. Brorein, of Tampa, President of the Peninsular Telephone Company and for many years one of the most ardent workers for Florida's development, is one of the many prominent Floridians who have recently returned to the state from the north with reports on the effect of the knocking campaign.

"Score of persons in Chicago and New York", Mr. Brorein said, "asked in all earnestness whether the stories about 50-cent bread and dollar-a-pound butter in Florida, true, as well as whether the rents were actually at the fabulous prices reported. These opinions seem to have been founded on anti-Florida propaganda which has had a wide circulation and which no doubt, is having a bad effect on those who would visit our state if they knew the true conditions and were sure they would not be ganged."

Tentative plans for the new ten story Leon Hotel at Tallahassee, to replace the famous hotel destroyed by fire several weeks ago, have been begun according to E. R. Harbeson, who with his father owns the Harbeson System of Hotels through West Florida. W. A. Edwards, for twenty-five years architect for the state institutions, has been employed to prepare the plans for the new structure.

SAMUEL MONTE DE OCA

On last Sunday at the close of the day came the end of one of the most beautiful characters that lived in St. Cloud, when after weeks of patient "sawing" Monte De Oca, as he was familiarly known, passed away. For the past fourteen years he had been confined to his home most of the time, suffering from the effects of an injury. The love and devotion of his brothers and sisters and many friends cheered his long years of "sawing". The funeral was held at the home on Monday by Rev. R. Atchison assisted by the Baptist church choir.

STOP THAT BACKACHE

Many St. Cloud Folks Have Found The Way.

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous? And it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this St. Cloud resident says:

"Pascal Strode, retired farmer, Massachusetts Ave., says: 'When I went to lie down, my back ached like toothache. I was out of sorts and in misery. I had to get up during the night to pass the kidneys secretions. At times everything seemed to be going around in circles. Doan's Pills from Edwards' Drug Store drove the pains from my back and my kidneys became normal.'"

"FLORIDA OF TOMORROW"
SUBJECT OF ROGER BARSON'S ARTICLE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—One of the biggest send-offs ever given Florida comes from the pen of Roger W. Barson the most outstanding business forecaster in America, who contributed his views of the future of the Sunshine State to the Florida issue of the American Motorist, the official publication of the American Automobile Association.

The October issue of the national motorist magazine is devoted entirely to the exploitation of the present and the future of Florida and Mr. Barson's predictions are evoking national interest and widespread comment. "The Florida of tomorrow," said Mr. Barson, "is being founded by two vast industries. You think I am going to mention citrus fruit or pecans, truck growing or cigar-making, lumber or naval stores. I count all these activities in the total, but in my judgment they are not paramount. "The industries most essential to Florida's future are the following: "1. The automobile industry. "2. The going-away-winters industry."

Seven years have passed into eternity since that gray November day when nations penned a truce, and the world paused to bury its mangled dead and bandage up its bleeding sons.

Seven peaceful years have followed, all so filled with busy enterprise and prosperity that we are apt to forget our sons' husbands and sweethearts who laid down their lives for you and for me.

Let us not forget, but let us pray for them and that they have not died in vain.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEONS ATTRACTING VERY LARGE ATTENDANCE

With increased enthusiasm the chamber of commerce luncheon and business meeting on Wednesday was a record breaker in attendance when, all three tables were more than full. After all were seated President Landis introduced Mrs. Lora R. La Munn, National Lecturer, of the "C. T. U. of Lake Wales, who was in attendance at the state convention being held in St. Cloud, who in her pleasing manner invited all members and those present to attend the convention. She was received with hearty applause.

The special entertainment for the luncheon was provided by Prof. F. Barbere, violinist, of Kissimmee, who was accompanied by Mrs. Barbere on the piano. Their numbers were received with great applause.

After the reading of the minutes the next order of business was the introduction of visitors. Lilburn Godwin introduced Mrs. Froyer and son; C. F. Steen introduced two Froyer adwifves, and in a manner Rosenthal presented Mrs. Herman Rosenthal; J. C. Gallatin presented Mr. French who is in charge of the laying of the water mains for the city water extension; and G. C. Hunter introduced Miss Edna Linn Rane, who has been employed as stenographer to assist secretary Rolfe.

A report of the trip to Lakeland was given by Secretary Rolfe, who stated that the St. Cloud Orchestra Band occupied a very unique position during the Realtors' Convention at Lakeland, as that of being the only musical organization to play for the Realtors luncheon at the Cleveland Heights Club. It was very hard to convince the Realtors throughout the State that this Band could possibly be the City Band of St. Cloud, Florida; many people being of the impression that it was a higher professional organization employed for the occasion, and when the vocal soloist was introduced and gave the usual rendition of her solos, the house was taken by storm. Enthusiasm over the St. Cloud Orchestra Band was remarkable. No better piece of advertising could possibly have been conceived by the Realtors of St. Cloud and then to cap the climax at the Cleveland Heights Club, the Orchestra Band was requested to play a public concert in the City Park at Lakeland, and once again it scored for St. Cloud. Needless to say, a most hearty invitation was extended to the St. Cloud delegation to return to Lakeland, where they would always find a hearty welcome. St. Cloud is justly proud of its organization and it is commendable that the citizens show their appreciation in the manner they do, by supporting a musical organization worthy of a city many times larger than St. Cloud.

Secretary Rolfe read communication from Western Union stating the loops for the extension of the line have been ordered.

A called meeting of the team captains was called at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at six thirty Wednesday evening. The names of Mrs. Rosenthal and Mrs. Foster were added to the captains of the membership drive. That every man woman and child in St. Cloud may be informed of the purpose of this large membership drive a two page advertisement appears in this week's paper. If you are for bigger and better St. Cloud don't wait for the committee to see you—speak to them even if you are a tourist—you can become a member and have the protection of $7,500 for one year, in addition to the many advantages offered you by being a member. Those participating in the several good things in store for the St. Cloud Chamber of Commerce members.

President Landis supplemented the remarks made by the secretary, adding that as it had been the custom to make a Red Cross roll call drive

In Court of the County Judge, Osceola County, State of Florida, In re Estate of Jacob Geiger.

To all Creditors, Legatees, Distributees and all Persons having Claims or Demands against said Estate:

You, and each of you, are hereby notified and required to present any claims and demands which you, or either of you, may have against the estate of Jacob Geiger deceased, late of Osceola County, Florida, to the County Judge of Osceola County, Florida within one year from the date hereof.

Dated November 2nd A. D. 1925.
JOHN E. GRIGER, Administrator.

Nov. 5-Dec. 24 PM.

that it is planned out of the $20,000 to raised by the addition of 2,000 members in the Chamber of Commerce, that we have only one roll call, and that $1,000 will be set aside for the Red Cross work which is being carried forward in such a wonderful way, under the direction of our Red Cross nurse Miss Hunter, who is covering the entire eastern part of the county. Should there be one who does not wish to become a member, they can at this time make contribution to the Red Cross work.

L. M. Parker presented the name of C. S. Knowlton for membership and he was received by unanimous vote. Secretary Rolfe reported his visit to Kissimmee Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of securing assistance in making the county fair all we wish it to be, and was assured that they would give $1,000.

County Agent B. Gunn explained that he had secured from county commissioners $500 to be used for part of his work with the club boys and girls and to see that they secure the annual instructions at Gainesville and Tallahassee.

Prof. H. Zetserree came not as he said, to ask for money, but if possible, to have a connection with the St. Cloud football team to Wachuha on his way from west Florida, to witness the game and assist our boys to bring home the laurels. This will be taken under advisement and decided at next meeting. The meeting was then adjourned.

Miss Beady Adams, former red cross nurse in St. Cloud has been employed as public health nurse for Hollywood.

In the Circuit Court for the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit of the State of Florida in and for Osceola County, In Chancery. V. C. McCrory and Helen C. Address of Miss Minnie E. Neal, President of Florida W. C. T. U.

Delivered at the Methodist Episcopal Church, St. Cloud, Florida, on Tuesday Morning, November 3, 1925

How happy we are to be the guests of St. Cloud, one of our comparatively new towns, an enterprising and prosperous town, with a citizenship of many of the most substantial men and women of the land. I have never heard how many states are represented in the population, but I question if any city of Florida has more, and all of them high class and patriotic.

Personally, it is peculiarly pleasant for your president to be here because she is visiting a home sake, 16 years ago Mrs. J. B. Westcott organized the Minnie E. Neal union of St. Cloud. Each of my five visits to St. Cloud has been a happy occasion, always a cordial reception and full house. The union has been a fine one as to good programs, well attended meetings, generous giving, and cordial cooperation with all the plans and work proposed by the state officers. St. Cloud we are indeed happy to be here with you. How glad the year has been since we gathered in charming St. Augustine. How the happiness and inspiration of that meeting has followed us during the days and weeks of service, of gains and losses, joys and sorrows, and the year's record in many respects has been gratifying.

Not many new unions this year—we regret that greatly. A goodly number of new members rejoice us, but a dropping off of old ones has cut our membership several hundred below last year. Many of you have done the very best you could to hold and gain. Many of you have put forth unusual efforts to popularize your union. Some of you have succeeded in making it the most highly respected organization in your city; hearty congratulations to all of you.

You have achieved by efforts not by wishing, and your efforts have paid well. The investments you have made in study, in plan, in time, in money, have brought you wonderful returns. Luck doesn't win in W. C. T. U. work as it sometimes does in real estate. It is like a profession—preparation and faithful, systematic, regular attention to the details of the W. C. T. U. departments are absolutely essential, and surely will give great returns.

Perhaps the work has been harder this year because there have been so many distractions. Home life, business life, civic life have been unsettled and hectic. Also among our workers there has been much sickness, and absence from home. There have been many changes in officers; the new ones have been an addition to our forces but the loss of old ones has been keenly felt.

Our departments of Christian Citizenship, and Scientific Temperance Instruction, have made notable gains. The preparation of the Hand Book of the Government of Florida by our superintendent was a real undertaking and its publication in September one of the noteworthy events of the year. Coming so late in the year it did not affect the course of study very much, but we have it now ready for the new year, and we hope some in every union enter on that study as outlined by the National Superintendent of the Department.

Under Miss Schofield's faithful direction the Prime Essay writing has more than doubled over last year, more unions have "put it over" this year, more children in each grade have written. Whether our women have given more careful attention to seeing that the subject is well taught I cannot say, as few have reported about it. In our presentation of the subject at the Conventions I notice the stress is all placed on the Essay writing. This should be done but every union should find out what is being taught in the public schools and how, and provide help for the teachers if they would be acceptable. It is our educational work that is the determining factor in future law observance. Law makers as well as law breakers are made in our public schools. Unions complain they have nothing special to do, or they want something new to do to make themselves felt in the community, yet I do not know of a union that has a good committee that frequently or regularly visits all the schools and endeavors to interest the teachers to give the best possible instruction on the effects of alcohol and narcotics.

I do not know how well we have performed our part of the great task set before the W. C. T. U. to enlighten the children and youth this year 1925—reports not in yet. I trust, however, we have done this year, we will set our standard high for another year, having definite aims and practical plans and go out after these recruits for the white ribbon army. Oh, yes and that we will set such examples of consistent Christian and patriotic actions that we will be inspiration to all in every community.

I was very much impressed by this brief story of inconsistency related in Colliers: It was a perfectly good and orthodox "father and son" banquet, and the speeches were many and good. The fathers put themselves on record as proud "to have a son", "to be a pal", "to be interested in civic welfare"; and the sons were glad "to have a real father" "to profit by every opportunity", "to realize their responsibility".

Then up rose a boy who wasn't on the program and made these remarks: "I like this banquet and what you've said about helping it," he said. "The schools are all right, and the church are all right, but I'll give you a tip: There are storekeepers here tonight who sell cigarettes to kids, and it keeps 'em off the team. There are men here who buy hooch and the boys think it's smart to get some. If you fathers want to do something for us boys, why don't you do it?"

The District Conventions during 1925 have been helpful, good programs, practical talks, fine presentation of methods, not given over to addresses from outsiders except in two places. The Institute idea is the worth while plan and another year I trust every meeting of our women under whatever name will be made up mostly of talks on plans and methods of our own workers. I have felt that the most valuable part of my service in Florida was in these District Conventions, in their opportunities for mutual, cordial acquaintance; and in our discussing together the problems that confront such unions; and in our working out together plans for a more unified work. I trust that the coming winter an itinerary can be arranged that will suit all and make it possible for your president to visit every district.

You will unite your rejoicing with mine that Florida did not go back in its Union Signal subscriptions. It is the same as last year—1000. A year ago I asked you to make it 1000. Some of you more than did your part, notably Largo, Trilby, Center Hill, Eustis. Others did not make any gain but held up pretty well. There are a few who failed us on this most important matter. I plead for universal participation, determined, persistent campaign by the district presidents to line up every one of their unions with a four-to-one Union Signal list. It needs to be done and these splendid leaders are the ones to do it. I have never seen a reader of the Union Signal who was not enthusiastic in our cause. This support of our National paper is almost a test of loyalty for the paper is entitled to your support. And it certainly is a dollar bargain. Every one here subscribe (or renew) for yourself and secure another subscriber during November.

What a stir was created by the report of the Federal Council of Churches on prohibition during September. This "Council" is a collection of representatives of all denominations but a few of these men are not authorized to give out any reports, yet that appears to be exactly what was done. Several churches have repudiated it as without knowledge even of their authorities. It was even out as a secret report—none but its authors knowing of it until it was published, and it was copyrighted so as to protect the authors in case of its use.

The anti prohibitionists have seized upon this report with avidity, heralding some of the statements in it as proof of their contention that prohibition is a failure. The report gives figures and opinions gathered from the "loop" district of Chicago and from the old so called "four hundred" of New York City—these are indicative of the entire cities, when they have always been notorious, and no one could expect a reformation in five years.

One thing these opponents of ours do not state is that the authors of the report depreciate any claim that it is final or complete. They offer their document as a compilation of data of a certain kind, statistics from courts and associations and polls from various clubs. Not any wide spread personal observation, nor is the report national. The authors of the report admit that statistical records of this character are not the place to look for the truth about prohibition. We all know that it is the average American, the home loving people who have been profited so very greatly by prohibition and this class should not be ignored in giving a National report on the success of the law.

The report will attract attention to slack enforcement, so it will be of service to our cause, and let us not be misled or discouraged by all the talk and publicity that comes from this publication, but rather let the Christian people awaken to the weakness of the enforcement and their responsibility to create a public sentiment that will demand the strongest, sincerest, best organized forces from the National Prohibition Commission down to the Justice of the Peace.

Here is some creditable testimony that is valuable for you to pass on:

MISS MINNIE E. NEAL

President of the Florida Women's Christian Temperance Union, who delivered the address at St. Cloud for the forty-second annual convention.

"Ever since prohibition Boston school children have been better fed and better clothed than at any time within the memory of those now in charge of educational affairs of the city," according to City Superintendent of Schools. The chief prohibition officer to the Cook County Commissioners, reports a marked decrease in the number of delinquents brought before the city juvenile court last year compared with preceding years.

"Former breweries and distilleries are now manufacturing clothing for women and children, ice cream, candy, oleomargarine, malt, sugar, yeast, and the lucky thirteen of the former twenty breweries of St. Louis that cheerfully obeyed the law and transformed their places into legitimate trade are now employing more men and doing better business than ever before."

Three years ago the Manufacturers Record made a survey of bankers, manufacturers, merchants, railway presidents, doctors, university professors, lawyers—men who are leaders in the industrial and professional life of the Nation, and received an overwhelming volume of testimony that prohibition was of incalculable value.

Recently the editors of the magazine were challenged to ask the same men who three years ago favored prohibition, if they still believed the law should be retained in view of many violations.

In a report in the current issue of the magazine on the results of the latest survey, the Manufacturers Record says: "We accepted the challenge without the slightest knowledge as to how those who three years ago wrote in favor of prohibition stood at the present time on that subject. But we recently asked them the question, determined to publish their replies in full whether for or against prohibition."

We confess that the replies as a whole have surprised us. We thought that possibly here and there some men might have changed their opinion, but the overwhelming testimony is in favor of prohibition and a more drastic enforcement of these laws. Up to the moment that this editorial is written only two replies out of a hundred or more had been received advocating moderation of the law; all others are strongly in favor of prohibition, giving their reasons therefor, and saying that they had been no reason for changing their previously expressed view in favor of prohibition."

Refuting the testimony of those who would make it appear that prohibition in the United States cannot be enforced, comes a Scottish student and writer who, after a thorough survey of many sections of the country, voluntarily declares that the law, even as at present administered, is "one of the most beneficial measures in the history of government." He evinces the future of a race of free people who have never been subjected to the polluting and degrading influence of the saloon or the barroom, and finds that America "will give a lead to the whole world in solving one of the most difficult problems of modern times."

This writer and investigator is William Paxton, who has just published in his book, "The Truth About Prohibition", the results of his first-hand study of the enforcement problem in America. He finds that even if no other influence remained to support prohibition, the workmen of the country would never permit the repeal of the law which has proved to be so great a blessing. Referring to the worker as he found him, Mr. Paxton says: "No argument of a leader in his own country, or a critic in ours, will alter a conviction which has come from experience."

The well known editor, S. S. McClure, of New York City, regards prohibition a very important advance made in civilization—I regard the achievement of Prohibition in America as one of the most important advances made in civilization. I have made a study of the authorities in regard to alcohol and I think the case against alcohol is impregnable. And if it is so in itself, it is much more so since the destruction wrought by the war.

A correspondent to the Monitor gives such convincing testimony, it is a pleasure to repeat it:

"My family and I have just returned from a trip, starting at the foot of the Canadian Rocky Mountains, thence diagonally across the North American Continent and ending at the southern most part of the State of Florida.

"Having been engaged the greater portion of the time in what might be considered the rough end of things, in a frontier environment in the United States and in Canada, I am qualified to observe the signs of the times."

"I can truly state that from the day of our departure until we returned to our home in northwestern Canada we did not see a human being that we could say was under the influence of liquor. Our journey included a trip of nearly 1000 miles, visiting many considerable resorts and other amusements places."

Of course, we know that great quantities of liquor are still illegally sold, purchased and consumed in the United States. How could it be otherwise when we know that only a very short time ago most of the prominent business locations in the country were occupied by saloons where countless thousands of people gathered day and night for no other purpose than to drink liquor, together with countless other thousands of manufacturers, salesmen, school keepers, and bar tenders who knew very little about any tention or calling save the liquor business.

The traffic in intoxicating liquor and other poisons is doomed; the people of the United States have spoken. This traffic is almost bound to continue for a time in secret, under cover and under difficulty, but the heart of the great masses, the common people of America, is sound and sober, the passing of a decade will bring to them more abundant liberty, health and happiness than they have ever known."

In a recent number of Collier's, Miss Ida M. Tarbell has an article on "After the Great Revolution", in which she discusses the present attitude of the American people towards prohibition. Miss Tarbell does not believe that revolutions go backward. She has every reason to believe that the decision of the country regarding the liquor traffic will stand. The country is something beside the city dinner table of the well-to-do. It is something beside the groups in the country clubs. The country is more than 30,000,000 people in farmers' families, probably nine-tenths of them against the repeal of the Volstead Act; it is nearly 27,000,000 women voters almost a unit against repeal. Count up all the bootleggers, the hip-pocket carriers, the lawless, country-club drinkers, the personal-liberty agitators and their sympathizers, and you must muster 5 per cent of the population of the United States! They are a drop in the bucket beside the great mass who believe that, on the whole, the Volstead Act is making for happiness and prosperity."

When we were in Washington attending the Quinquennial meeting of the Anti-Prohibition Association was held. Some of our women attended and the discussions they heard were of paramount interest to us. Col. Stuyton, the head of the organization said the women of the country are responsible for keeping the amendment, and stated that as long as these women vote as they do it is going to be very difficult to modify or repeal the law. It was asserted that seven million Christian women of the south are a bulwark to the law. "These women," the speaker asserted, "are led by their narrow minded preachers—Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, and others, and there is no turning them from their position by men speakers or writers, but women might be successful in influencing them." So Col. Stuyton called upon the women present to defend the amendment. He said that everywhere, in faithful endeavor to influence women voters for modification of the law. One statement was that the vote of one woman was more potent than the vote of 10 men. Sounds good, doesn't it, and we will continue to use all our powers to educate and organize, yes and agitate, to hold our women true to being Christian in their voting as well as in their missionary work."

How essential it is that we shall continue every form of education we have ever used to foster total abstinence. Our Sunday School teaching—those quarterly lessons—the special drills, songs, blackboard talks—they are so important. The teaching in the schools, the prize essays, the talks in the young people's organizations, every kind of way of reaching the youth should be employed faithfully by our unions to win for total abstinence. We must remember that appetite is one of the three deadly enemies of prohibition.

It is the youth we must win. The position of our organization on this point is strengthened by the strong utterances of many of the prominent men of the nation. In an address in Washington, Admiral W. S. Sims made this vigorous pronouncement: "The influence of our young men on the future of the United States will be very great. In a few years you will be the controlling force of the nation. The future—ours and perhaps the world's future, will be determined by your mental equipment, your moral principles, your clean flesh, your physical stamina, and your ideals of private and national life. It is up to you to stop, look and listen. It is up to you to do some serious thinking—to form the habit of thinking straight."

"It is my belief that if college students should decide to obey the law in question and if their example should be followed by the great mass of students in all our colleges and schools, the moral influence would eventually be such as to sweep out of office every corrupt official, and to create that respect for law without which no Democracy can succeed."

"This Democracy must not be allowed to fail; but it cannot succeed unless and until the people realize the sanctity of law, and recognize that a government official who violates his oath to defend the Constitution is a dangerous criminal. No nation can resist the determined moral conviction of its young men."

"The future is in the hands of you young men and women. More than to any other class of our citizens, it is up to you."

The immediate past few years have been prolific in discussions of methods to annihilate war. One plan proposed is so overwhelming in its results for making war unpopular that it certainly looks as though it might be the plan. Here it is: In event of a declaration of war by the United States not only shall man power be subject to draft, but all persons irrespective of age, sex, calling, profession, wealth, poverty, together with their property and machinery shall be available for conscription. It is proposed that every one shall be placed on the same pay as the serving soldier, and each directed to the duty for which fitted. Also that an organization be created beforehand in order that the plan could be put into immediate operation when the country should be involved in hostilities. This plan will be brought before Congress and already has the support of many important leaders. The contention is that if the profits of war are removed and every one know that war will make him poorer, all will be converted to love or peace.

The Woman's Temperance Union will foster the same simple plans that won us prohibition, to aid in winning peace—prepare childhood. One of our leading newspapers presents this simple convincing way:

The very occupations of children during their play hours tend toward a training for war, and not for peace. The clashes between pupils in the hours of play place deep emphasis on the belligerence of their elders. They accept strongly the habit which has grown upon their elders of settling differences between nations by recourse to war. And yet, surely, the child at school should be trained, not to fight, but to be at peace. That is the road to world-disarmament and world pacification; the incubation of a spirit in childhood which regards war as an impossible thing, as a thing not to be resorted to or thought of under any circumstances.

Is this a time to think of home affairs with more conventions? Some organizations are devising much attention to house building—conventions, sanitation and such matters. Why not the Woman's Christian Temperance Union give increased emphasis to character building in the home?

Attorney General Sargent in his first public address, this happened to be before the P. A. in their annual meeting in Washington, talked very plainly on this subject. Hear him—"The women of America can and will make or break the nation by what they teach their children before the age of ten," he declared. "We read and hear a great deal of talk about women's part in politics; about their purifying and ennobling influence of her participation in the affairs of government; to all this I subscribe, and for its continuance and its extending I am willing to work."

If it is undertaken and carried on in addition to the work, the duties, which nature has imposed upon her, and which cannot be discarded or neglected without injury, without ruin, to the very body politic in the councils of which she aspires to sit in a front seat."

"In this country, under our system, the government in the last analysis is the whole people. Of what avail can it be to undertake to administer the laws, however wholesome and beneficial they may be in their theory, in their language, to carry on a public government of a people of adults who in childhood and youth have lived utterly without restraint, and have been taught, or at least allowed to think, that rules of conduct are made to be followed and obeyed by others, but each can and will do as he pleases."

"The responsibility for curing, for preventing this state of mind in the child is primarily upon that child's mother."

"This state of mind once allowed to become a part of the character of the child, persists in the youth, in the grown-up, and is almost impossible of eradication from the mass and woman. It is the source, the root of the nation, so prevalent just now, that if a law is enacted which interferes with one's desires, with what he pleases to call his personal liberty, because this is the land of liberty, he is morally justified in winking at its violation by others."

"Ours is indeed a land of liberty, a government of liberty, but of liberty under laws. To swear to support the constitution does not signify, if that oath be taken with the mental reservation 'except when my pleasure or my convenience run to contrary.'"

"Allegiance to country means obedience to its laws,—whole hearted the home, where the next generation will see and learn it daily and hourly until it becomes a part of their very selves."

Did you read about the United Parents Association of New York? It is setting before itself an attempt to professionalize the job of being a parent. It contends that there are no problem children but problem parents, a plenty. It is the same thing we are hearing from our social service workers. Parents do not understand their children, so are not prepared to help their development and assist in character building. In fact, many parents make no attempt to train their children. The association is giving our warning messages to its branches urging its members to investigate their ability to be good parents at the same time they are trying to help others be good parents.

In our larger cities our unions should cooperate with all the agencies—societies, clubs, committees—that are studying to deal with youth in the best way; and in every place, the parent problem well merits the careful attention of the union. Our old department of Mother's Meetings should be revived, and with all the knowledge social workers have, and all the help our superintendents can secure, very valuable meetings can be held.

President Coolidge has on many occasions laid much emphasis on character and the attainment of moral and spiritual attributes rather than material things. It is very gratifying that the youth has such standards set before them by the Nation's head, and an example of the simple, honorable, moral life. In his address to the American Legion in Omaha, Nebraska a few weeks ago, the President created for this nation the position of leadership in ways of peace, tolerance, friendship. The president declared that America can be made first in the true sense of cultivating a spirit of friendship and good will by the exercise of the virtues of patience and forbearance by being "plentiful in mercy", and true progress of home and helpfulness abroad, standing as an example of real service to humanity. The ways by which this is to be accomplished he indicated when he said: "If we are looking for a more complete reign of justice, a more complete supremacy of law, a more complete social harmony, we must seek it in the paths of peace", and then concluded the paragraph from which these words are quoted words are quoted by saying: "One of the greatest questions before the nation today is how to promote such tranquility" as that to which he referred. He contended that "there should be an intellectual demobilization as well as a military demobilization," meaning thereby that the people should clear their minds of suspicion, hate and intolerance, in order that the peace they desire may be brought about.

"I can see no merit, the president declared, in any unnecessary expenditure of money to hire men to build fireboats and carry munitions when international relations and agreements permit the turning of such resources into the making of good roads the (Continued on Page Ten)

building of better homes, the promotion of education and all the other arts of peace which minister to the advancement of human welfare.

Saturday Evening Post, June 20, 1925, says: "Uncle Sam has before him the unpleasant task of suppressing three kinds of bootlegging: unlawful traffic in alcoholic liquors, in narcotic drugs and in slaves."

"The issue is not the comparative merits of wetness and dryness, nor the social effects of drink selling, nor the wisdom of our legislation laws. The basic issue, the one that sticks out like a sore thumb, is whether Uncle Sam is to be master in his own house."

"Government must maintain its authority or go out of business, and ours is no exception. When laws to a laughing stock and the hazards of crime are not much greater than those of lawful business, government, as conceived by civilized nations, is at an end."

"The United States has a long way to go before it will come to such a pass; but until bootlegging of all sorts shall have been brought under tight control, that is the direction in which we shall be heading. The time has come for a show-down and a turnabout. The strengthening of law enforcement is the greatest piece of unfinished business before the country."

When the Christian men and women awaken to a full sense of their responsibility as citizens, we will have real observance of law. I quote from Eliza Root in "The Citizen's Part in One Country": "It is not rightly a matter of choice whether a man shall trouble himself about affairs of government in his community, or confine himself to his business, his profession, or his pleasures, and leave others to govern; it is a matter of perception, obligation which cannot be avoided by any intelligent man who has any understanding of the conditions under which he lives." The essential feature of the present condition is that burden and duty of government.

rest upon all men, and no man can retire to his business or his pleasures and ignore his right to share in government without shirking a duty. The experiment of popular government cannot be successful unless the citizen of a country generously take part in the government. There is no man free from the responsibility that responsibility is exactly proportioned to each man's capacity—to his education, to his experience in life, to his disinterestedness, to his capacity for leadership—in brief, to his equipment effective action in the great struggle that is continually going on to determine the preponderance of good and bad forces in government, and upon the issue of which depend results so momentous to himself, his family, his children, his country and mankind. The selfish men who have special interests to subserve were going to take part; the better and more excellent and prejudiced men whose hearts are filled with hatred are going to take part; the corrupt men who want to make something out of government are going to take part; the demagogues who wish to attain place and power through pandering to the prejudices of their fellows are going to take part. The forces of selfishness, of self-control, of justice, of public spirit, public honesty, love of country, are set over against them; and those forces need every possible contribution of personality and powers among men, or they will go down in the irrepressible conflict. The scheme of popular government upon which so much depends cannot be worked successfully unless the great body of men do their share; and as one of us can fail to do his share without forfeiting something of his title to self-respect.

The three remedies in our hands to control the enforcement situation are freely given in one of the prize 225-word statement on enforcement sent the Granite Trust Co., of Mass.: SHAME APPEAL by making the lawless drinker realize that he, in the words of the late President Harding, "is a menace to the Republic itself."

HALT AVARICE with the sure penalty of the jail—a mere fine for the bootlegging professor is a travesty on justice.

AWAKE APATHY by bringing home to every citizen that the issue today is bigger and more basic even than Prohibition, that it is: "Shall the Constitution of the United States be obeyed?"

Best of all pronouncements on the situation is this sentence from Attorney General Sargent: "The country is safe, society is safe, when the law is obeyed, not because it is enforced."

Last year our president of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Miss Anna A. Gordon, led us in a review of our history, recounting the heroic lives and endeavors of those fifty years.

I close this annual message to Florida women with her inspiring call for the future: "Today—fifty years later—the same spiritual and patriotic fire should burn in our very souls. From the strong hands of our marching mothers we took the torches of sacrificial service for God and home and native land. Today, with exultant gratitude to our God, we hold them high to help light the way for God and home and every land. It does not daunt us to realize that is the adventurous pilgrimage of our new crusade as shall encounter the waves of prejudice and opposition dashing high on many a 'stern and rock-bound coast.' To complete the program inaugurated by our Crusade mothers—those whole-souled, unafraid, ballistics women—is our inheritance, our sacred obligation, our joyous task ahead."

EDITORIAL Armistice Day Comes To Sooth a Restless World

WHAT could be more fitting than that the ultimatum, delivered by the Council of The League of Nations, commanding Bulgaria and Greece to withdraw their troops behind their national borders, and to cease hostilities forthwith, should have been formulated and delivered practically on the eve of Armistice Day? Time, which modulates the passions and provides a deeper background for mutual understanding, time which levels all things and lays the shepherd's crook beside the sceptre, has brought much of moral advancement to the world, but never has it given to us a happier augury than now when it turns the consideration of Armistice Day to one of softened joy in place of inspiration for the renewal of hatreds and continued bitterness of soul. It seems almost as if that great apostle of peace, dying practically discredited, had arisen in the spirit to stretch His arms over the peoples of the world in calm but forceful command that reason henceforth shall reign supreme. Men in our national congress may differ as to the wisdom of this great nation entering into the entangling alliances of the League; readers of ten thousand newspapers may hold ten thousand different views, but all will rejoice that renewed bloodshed on the field of battle, with its incident horror and human suffering has been checked, and muskets silenced by the influence of a great American.

As the years roll on that influence must grow in power, carrying in place of sadness solace to those stricken souls whose dear ones went west for human freedom. No more need Armistice Day cause the eye to flash in memory of great wrong done. Rather may it now make the stricken soul pass from that pain that is almost pleasure in its sacrifice, to pleasure that is almost pain in its nobility.

PLANS FOR MOTORCADE E TO LAKE LAND WHIPPED INTO SHAPE BY REALTORS BOARD

At the noon luncheon of the St. Cloud Realtors board, on Friday at the Hotel Cafe, the members present were Wm. Landis, C. E. Steen, O. E. Ward, John F. Bailey, Charles Bailey, Mrs. Rosenthal, G. C. Hunter, Howard Dawley and S. W. Porter. In the absence of both President and Vice-President, G. C. Hunter was selected to preside. At this time it was decided, by unanimous vote, to change the membership dues to forty dollars, thus taking care of state and national dues as well as local board dues to be paid quarterly in advance except national which is paid annually in advance. Howard Dawley, chairman of motorcade committee, reported word had been received from the Palm Beach board that they would go up East Coast to Indian City and through Orlando, thence to Lakeland. Some of the cars, however, will come through St. Cloud. He also reported that arrangements for the band to play in Lakeland in the city park Tuesday and also at the realtors' dance at night. The report of this committee was received and the committee was continued until all arrangements had been completed.

Communication with reference to delegates stating that the President by virtue of his office is a member of the State Board of Governors; also that the registration fee is five dollars. The report in answer to telegram sent by the board to T. G. Moore saying he expects to be able to return to St. Cloud at an early date.

The application of Leon D. Lamb

for membership in the board was presented by G. C. Hunter and three other members of the board.

Under the new law those who have a right to use the name "Realtor" must display in their office a sign not less than eight by sixteen inches. Warning received from the national board giving name of impostor in the state to be on outlook for him.

It is the desire every realtor join the motorcade at nine Tuesday morning.

REV. ATCHISON HONORED BY THE WIKIVA MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Wikiva Ministerial Association of the Baptist denomination which includes all the Baptist Churches of Osceola and Orange counties met for their regular monthly business meeting last Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. About twenty of the pastors and their wives were entertained by the ladies of the Klammee Baptist Church for supper after which the business of the association was transacted. Dr. Burr of Winter Park, who has been President of the association for a number of years resigned on account of poor health and Rev. B. Atchison of St. Cloud was chosen to take his place.

A good program was prepared for the evening service which was opened by the pulpit and a large congregation enjoyed the addresses delivered by Dr. J. A. Sutton of Orlando and Rev. U. O. Reed of Winter Park.

VETERANS MEETING

On October 31, President Kenney opened the meeting with the singing of America. E. M. Bennett offered the prayer, minutes of the previous meeting was read, followed with the Florida song, St. Cloud yell and the collection.

The social hour was opened with music by Mrs. Nettie Clark. The program was as follows: "How Did It Happen?" Mrs. Brown. "But Don't You Tell," Mrs. Gertrude Balcorn.

Song "The Mistletoe Bough" by Comrade Lathrop. Violin music by Little Miss Shander of Kentucky accompanied by her mother. The child is only nine years of age and she played two selections with wonderful skill.

"Mr. Pumpkin" by Ramona Harvey. "A Lesson in Geography" by Mrs. Clara Fuller and Annette Smith. Prof. Allen, a song, "If You Know Him," and he responded to an encore.

"The Two Mansions" by Mrs. Annette Smith. "An Essay on Editions" by Mrs. Nettie Bennett.

Little Miss Shander was asked favor us again with violin music, which she did with the same ease. The meeting was closed with the singing of the first and last verses of the Star Spangled Banner.

Armistice Day NOVEMBER 11th, 1925

To those brave, bright-eyed, eager men—who gave their life without question—in its bright and glorious beginning—to their country—that the world might be made safe for DEMOCRACY—we gratefully and reverently dedicate our thoughts and prayers and solemn thanks, on Armistice Day.

May we remember always, through the long dim future years—our sacred trust, and honor forever the memory of those American men, who made the supreme sacrifice that America might remain the

Liniment Called Mexican Mustang has Strange Power

A lame back, a strained muscle or aching joints will stop aching and become limber and natural if you will apply a little of that old-fashioned liniment known as Mexican Mustang. Druggists and other authorities agree that its great power to relieve pain is due to its magical penetrating action—it goes through the outer layers of the skin without burning or a trace of blister, right to the sore spot. It is not like the smarting, strong, burning mixtures usually known as liniments. No matter if all other outside applications have failed, you will not be disappointed with Mexican Mustang Liniment—it also heals cuts, burns and sores and so makes a valuable remedy to have in the home at all times. All druggists and wholesalers sell Mustang Liniment or can get it for you.

Back Up Our Schools and Churches!

Let's Go!

Religious influence is necessary to community welfare and progress. Our churches furnish a moral foundation that helps us all to live better and happier lives.

Our schools are the Builders of St. Cloud's future citizens. How well they develop our youth depends on the moral and financial support we give them.

Let's get behind the two institutions that build character for future generations. Let's be active in both church and school work. Let's contribute generously. Let's support them loyally.

Our churches and school constitute an investment that pays dividends uncountable. Get behind them. Let's Go!

Permanent roads are a good investment—not an expense

Don't Let Your Community Make the Same Mistake

Within recent years many communities have made the mistake of paving their highways at what they considered a "bargain price." The taxpayers thought they would save thousands of dollars.

But no one could foresee the astounding increase in motor traffic that was to come. As a result roads not built for permanence were soon badly in need of expensive repair. Annual maintenance costs piled up staggering totals.

In many instances the maintenance has not only wiped out the hoped for saving, but has exceeded original cost. And in many cases also it has been necessary to build entirely new roads—of permanent construction.

There are communities, however, which refuse to be misled by bargain price offerings.
Many of these also built roads several years ago.
And they built for permanence with concrete.

Those concrete roads, built in accordance with approved standards of highway construction, are in as good condition today as when they were built. And the cost of repairs and maintenance has been merely nominal. In fact, this saving is actually paying for these permanently paved highways. And remember that this saving will continue long after the bonds are paid for.

Which of these communities will yours be?
Think it over. Then write us for facts and figures. We can prove to you that the most economical paving in the end is concrete—it has repairs built out and the maintenance built in.

REGULAR MEETING OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS HELD TO TRANSACT BUSINESS

The regular session of the county commissioners was held in the clerk's office at the court house in Kissimmee on Monday. All members of the commission present were: E. L. D. Overstreet, chairman and J. L. Overstreet, clerk. A. F. Bass, H. C. Parlin, E. T. Minor and H. B. Smith. After the reading of minutes Attorney John Cabel as spokesman for the road committee came before the board with two requests that an engineer be employed to make a survey of the proposed roads to be included in the county wide bond issue for which an election is to be called at an early date, which will give about eighty miles of much needed highway to the county highway and the other request was that a committee be sent to Tallahassee to confer with Governor John W. Martin to ascertain why the state does not maintain the Kissimmee and Melbourne road also to ask for assistance on Kennansville road as this is to be a state road. Kissimmee and Melbourne roads need repairs and widening through to the Brevard County road at least between St. Cloud and Kissimmee. Both these requests were granted and a committee comprising A. F. Bass, E. T. Minor and L. B. Farmer was appointed to go to Tallahassee and take the matter up with the governor and the engineering contract was let to Johnston and Butler engineers of Kissimmee to make the necessary survey giving the approximate cost of the proposed road from which the bids will be made. They agree to have this all ready within forty-five days at a cost of $5,500 to be deducted from the percentage, should they be the successful bidders.

There was a request for the commissioners to correspond with the railroad company to get a crossing placed at Redland Hammock at Buckles Mill and place the signs.

J. F. Marks of Campbell's Station came to inquire about petition for half mile road to the school house and was assured that this would receive attention at the next meeting.

A. F. Bass reported that there was need of the road being opened along near the lake joining Cypress Avenue in St. Cloud be opened as some residents in this section had no means of getting in or out. This request was also granted with instruction to have it opened and graded.

With the increased demand for road work it was found the present equipment was inadequate and the commissioners instructed the clerk to purchase one plow, disk and grader.

The bonds for Deputy Sheriff of L. G. Davis, of Deer Park, also A. M. Morgan of Deer Park as Deputy Sheriff and the Notary Public bonds of Robert E. Griffin, Joe R. Shaur, M. B. Hayes and D. G. Wagner were all approved.

The county agent June Gunn was before the board to request that an appropriation be set aside sufficient to send the boys and girls of the agricultural clubs to the annual instruction week at Tallahassee and Gainesville and with the increased amount of farming and need of demonstrators, there was much favorable comment on the advisability of this being done, and there was five hundred dollars set aside, if necessary, to cover the railroad fare and board of these club members.

As Clerk Overstreet has been requested to make a statement of funds he submitted the following report.

Youngs Board of County Commissioners, Kissimmee, Fla., Gentlemen: According to your instructions to me at your last regular meeting October 28th, 1925, I have made up statement showing balance in Agricultural and L. B. Fund and the amount to be collected for 1925 and the amounts you have distributed which is as follows: Balance in fund $1454.22, amount to be collected $4500 total $6000.22; amount distributed County Agent $2400, Red Cross chapter $5,000, Kissimmee Chamber of Commerce $300, J. A. Geiger, St. Cloud Agent teacher $500, J. B. Gunn, District Agent for boys and girls club $500, and Kissimmee Chamber of Commerce $1,500; total $8,000; balance $492.22.

Victor Hill of Narcoossee was before the board requesting that they reconsider the special road election so it would come at least ten days after the county-wide election.

No funds were available for the county fair.

The board is heartily in favor of anything that will speed up getting in railroad crossings.

It was found necessary to borrow some money for the road fund and arrangements were made to do so at once with the Peoples Bank of St. Cloud for a loan of $1,000.

Since S. J. Kistritz, who is one of the Bond Trustees has moved to Orange county he tendered his resignation which was accepted.

The board was requested to have crossing placed across the railroad seven hundred feet east of Hammock Grove at 10th Park. This was granted.

There being no funds on hand it was voted that if the Chamber of Commerce to design the clerk can issue a trade acceptance for amount within its appropriation.

Warren Wayman, colored, who is helpless, was given $6 monthly allowance and John Sylvester was allowed $10.

CONVENTION SONG

Florida Woman's Christian Temperance Union.
(Tune—"True Hearted, Whole Hearted")

1. White ribbon comrades of Florida's great Union
Stand staunch and strong, and bravely endure;
Strong in the faith that with God holds communion
Raise high the banner, for victory is sure.

Refrain—Ring out the watchword!
Be faithful ever
This be the cry where the white ribbon goes.

Ring out the watchword!
Be faithful ever
We'll win the victory and conquer our foe.

2. What if opposer resist us with rancor?
Be of good courage, and never despair;
Strong in the hope that sustains as an anchor,
We'll cheer each other with song and with prayer.

Refrain—Ring out the watchword!
Be hopeful ever;
This be the cry where the white ribbon goes.

Ring out the watchword!
Be hopeful ever,
We'll win the victory and conquer our foe.

3. Why should we fear the reproach that assaileth,
Right on the scaffold, and wrong on the throne?
Strong in the love which we know never faileth,
We'll labor on till the world is His own.

Refrain—Ring out the watchword!
Be loving ever;
This be the cry where the white ribbon goes.

Ring out the watchword!
Be loving ever
We'll win the victory and conquer our foe.

4. Faith, Hope, and Love—'tis the triple cord that binds us,
Each to the other, thru gain and thru loss
And to our Father, who in the furnace tries us,
That He may refine the gold from the dross.

Refrain—There let us be faithful Hopeful and loving
This be the cry, where the white ribbon goes.

Then let us be faithful Hopeful and loving
We'll win the victory and conquer our foe.

IN APPRECIATION

Into the life of every one there comes a day when the bitterness of forever parting from loved ones must be borne and in that hour of distress and sadness the human heart turns to friends.

In my recent sorrow over the loss of my dear husband my heart has been comforted by the generous sympathy, timely consideration and abundant tokens from friends.

To Elsie's Bros. for their careful attention to all details of arrangement, to Rev. Landis for comforting remarks, to the soloist, to the pall-bearers and to all who sent floral tokens or assisted in any way to lighten my sorrow, I am deeply grateful.

(Dr.) M. Cushman-Griswold.

Better Buick
Time Payment Costs are Lowest in the Motor Car Industry

Buick time payment prices are from $30 to $75 under prices of competitive cars. The new GMAC Time Payment Plan adds still another economy to Buick ownership.

Actual comparison of DELIVERED cost will show you the Better Buick's decisive price advantage over other cars whose dealers have not the opportunity to work under the GMAC Plan. Pick out any other car of approximately the same list price as a Buick model and get the DELIVERED cost of each, with everything you will be required to pay added to the total (including interest and insurance). See how much lower Buick is!

The Better Buick, at its new low prices, is the best buy in the motor car market today, on the basis of efficiency, quality and value, whether you pay cash or buy it out of your income on the new GMAC Plan. Either way you get a better car for less money.

Notice of Special Election to Determine Whether Special Road and Bridge District No. 5 Shall Be Constituted.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT:

(1) On the 7th day of September, A. D. 1925, a petition was filed before the Board of County Commissioners, Osceola County, Florida, asking for the constitution of the following described territory located in Osceola County, Florida, to-wit:

Beginning at the northeast corner of section One (1), Township 25 South, Range 32 East, and running due west to the northwest corner of section Six (6), Township 25 South, Range 31 East; thence due south along said range line to the southwest corner of section Thirty-one (31), Township 25 South, Range 31 East; thence due east along the township line to the southeast corner of section Thirty-six (36), Township 25 South, Range 32 East; thence due north along the range line to the point of beginning into a Special Road and Bridge District.

(2) On the 5th day of October, A. D. 1925, said Board of County Commissioners ordered an election to be held in said territory to determine whether such territory shall be constituted into a Special Road and Bridge District to be denominated and known as Special Road and Bridge District No. 5 Osceola County, Florida, and the proposed roads and bridges constructed, re-constructed or rebuilt and paid for as specified in said petition.

In accordance with said order you are hereby notified that on the 10th day of November, A. ST. CLOUD WOMAN VISITS FIFTEEN STATES IN THE UNION

Mrs. E. Vreeland has returned from a trip north which refreshed, by the much needed vacation, and is back in her office in the Hotel St. Cloud. During her absence she visited fifteen different states. Wherever she went she found all were anxious to know the real facts about Florida as there has been so much misrepresentation of Florida. Of course Mrs. Vreeland has been a resident of Florida for years and could give facts which she was more than glad to do. While in South Dakota she attended the grand celebration of Frontiers men which was a grand sight. There were several thousand Indians from different reservations all attired in gorgeous beaded costumes and no two alike; many on horseback and many walking holding their hands erect carrying with pride the stars and stripes.

Among the historical characters in the parade and taking part in making the picture, "Custer's Last Stand", was Captain Jim Moore, of Tampa, Fla., and Wash. Leedom, of Newwood, South Dakota. These two men when but mere boys in the early seventies, ran away from home and enlisted in the army and were sent with army units up the Missouri river stopping at Fort Hale, Fort Thompson, and Fort Abraham Lincoln. They were attached to the 7th cavalry and when the regiment was split up seventeen miles from Custer's Battlefield, Custer taking some and General Reno the rest, these two men helped bury two hundred and fifty two and assisted in helping chase the Indians and avenge the death of Custer and his men. Moore went with the seventh cavalry to Oklahoma, later, and Leedom remained in the Black Hill. It was at this big celebration that these two men met again after all these years.

Many of the Sioux Indians who were in the battle with Custer were present. Spotted Rabbit who fired the fatal bullet that killed General Custer was the only member who was not scalped or mutilated. The Indians were held back by Spotted Rabbit. The old stage coach was a feature of this parade and seated with in the coach was Spotted Rabbit beside him was the daughter of Sitting Bull. She is a princess of the tribe and has lived on a reservation in the Black Hills forty-nine years. The sons of honor, on top of the coach, was occupied by Capt. Jim Moore, of Tampa, Fla.

BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for the late Mungo Brownlee, for many years a resident of Burg Hill, were held this afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. Kent Hall at Burg Hill. Burial was made in the Tranter family lot in the old Burg Hill cemetery.

The love and esteem that the people in that section of the county held for Mr. Brownlee was attested in the large number who attended the services and by the floral offerings that covered the casket and filled the room. Floral offerings from many distant points showed that Mr. Brownlee was held in high regard wherever he was known. One local florist sent four units loads of flowers to the home for the services and many more were received from friends nearer at home.

Professor Hall of Hiram college was in charge of the services and the Pall bearers, all old friends of Mr. Brownlee, were Charles Reed, James Weir, John Pelton, Burg Hill; Camlin Tranter, James Hamilton Kinsman; Edwin Beach and Jason Beach, Burg Hill, and Chambers Fell of Orangeville. Vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. E. J. Gossard of this city accompanied by Miss Gladys Gossard.

Mr. Brownlee was a native of Scotland where he was born July 3, 1842. When he was six years old his parents came to this country and settled in Vernon township. His early education was received in the township schools and later he attended Hiram college. For several years he taught school and was a farmer. Later he owned and operated coal mines in Indiana and had his offices in Chicago.

For over 30 years Mr. Brownlee was a trustee of the peace in Vernon township and his reputation for fairness in his court was wide spread. He was also very favorably known throughout the entire country. During the later years of his life Mr. Brownlee spent much time in the south having a home at St. Cloud, Fla.

This summer he came north to visit his son, William M. Brownlee of Toronto, Can., and while there was taken ill. He passed away last Sunday.

Mr. Brownlee was a man extremely active, both physically and mentally, for one of his years and was a particular favorite among persons many years his junior. Mr. Brownlee's first wife passed away in 1907 and a number of years later he married Jessie Old Barrow who survives him with the following children: William M. Brownlee, Toronto, Can.; Mrs. Everett St. John, Warren, Can.; Mrs. H. Kent Hall of Burg Hill, Warren, O.

ARMISTICE DAY!

1925

*Through their Unselfishness and Valor --
"HUMANITY STILL LIVES!"*

It is the Day of the Gold Star Legion—those valiant boys who helped to strike the final blow . . . that We might pursue our lives in peace, happiness and prosperity. They gave the last full measure of devotion—for us.

In clustered graves on the hillside of Suresnes—in Flanders fields—in Arlington—in every American city and hamlet—they sleep. Out where all is silent. But—their valiant spirits live on in unseen presence.

We who remain are under eternal bonds of fidelity to our fallen heroes. THEY have made the Supreme Sacrifice to an ideal. WE must re-consecrate ourselves to that same ideal.

Let us re-affirm our loyalty to the Flag whose bright colors still wave gloriously because of our heroes' unselfishness and valor. We must brighten the lives of our disabled veterans—the living heroes whose skies were darkened in tragic moments. We can honor our dead by serving our living—an investment in Service that pays dividends no money can bring.

Today—Armistice Day of 1925—let us bare our heads in reverent memory. Let us re-dedicate ourselves to the service of God Country and Comrade. Thus can we observe the Day in its true spirit.
